Tour this exhibition of fashion and the history of San Francisco and their reflection upon each other.

Tour #2: Fashioning San Francisco: A Century of Style

at the de Young Fine Arts Museum of San Francisco

Catch the Amador Stage Coach at one of our two locations for stress free travel to explore a century of San Francisco's history through fashion collections of 20th-and 21st-century women's clothing created by over 50 fashion designers. This iconic exhibit includes designs from French couturiers, Japanese avant-garde designers and other foundational creators of the fashion industry, including:

- Christian Dior
- Alexander McQueen
- Christopher John Rogers
- Comme des Garcons, and
- Rodarte

We will tour Fashioning San Francisco with the museum's art docents. Your ticket will allow you to visit all other exhibits at the de Young, as well.

During our visit, other exhibits featured are:

- Lee Mingwei: Rituals of Care,
- Irving Penn: a collection of his photographs, and

- Lhola Amira: Facing the Future.

A café within de Young is available for lunch. (Lunch is not covered in the price of your ticket.)

A Maynard Dixon trail and rider painting, in the Western style he was famous for . One of many you will see on this tour of the Nevada Museum of Art.

Tour #3: Sagebrush & Solitude:

Maynard Dixon in Nevada

at the Nevada Museum of Art, Reno, NV

Join us for this tour to the Maynard Dixon exhibition at the Nevada Museum of Art. Dixon, an accomplished painter, wandered the state of Nevada, Lake Tahoe, and the Eastern Sierras from 1901 to 1939, to paint and sketch the landscapes. Dixon is among the greatest of the Western artists. He was born near Fresno in 1875 and specialized in paintings of Western landscapes and Native American themes. He was also a muralist (see picture below) and an illustrator working for several publications, including Harper's Monthly in New York City. His "Trail in Oregon" piece earned him a Bronze medal in the Panama-Pacific International Exposition.

Two other exhibits showing are End of the Range: Charlotte Skinner in the Eastern Sierra and Elisheva Biernoff: Reservoir of Time.

Within walking distance of the museum are locations for lunch. (Lunch is not covered in the price of your ticket.)

Tour #3 - Thursday, April 11th, 2024

Cost:
Members $62.00
Non-Members $82.00

Visit the Villa Ca'toga, inspired by the Palladio, Veronese and Venetian culture.

Tour #4: Self-Guided Tour of the Villa Ca'Toga and the Ca'Toga Art Gallery

in Calistoga, CA

Clamor onto the Amador Stage Coach to Calistoga Appellation of Napa Valley for a private tour of Villa Ca'Toga followed by a visit to Ca'Toga Art Gallery. Villa Ca'Toga is the residence/studio/retreat of Carlo Marchiori, an artist born in Rossano near Venice in 1937. On 5 acres, he has recreated an Italian villa of his youth.

On the grounds of the villa, Commedia dell' arte figures, Pulcinella, Pantaloon and Arlecchino, adorn columns and gates in the sculpture courtyard. The Grotto and Roman Theater welcome visitors in the front yard. Toward the rear of the property are Greco-Roman ruins, a shady river walk, Thai stupas and a pocket pyramid, as well as a Roman pool, fountains and hot tub.

In the interior, the villa consists of a main Salone and six large rooms: Pompeiian Room, Library, Greek Room, Birdcage Room, Cow Room and Southwest Room. Each one has a whimsical theme or classical interpretation of an ancient dream.

Calistoga is an entirely walkable town. Be on the lookout for the Collings & Legere Art Gallery showcasing the artwork of Marta Collings & Therese Legere. Ira Yeager studio is located at the Yager Galerie. Just doors down from Yager is Napa Valley Art on the Vine, home of the artist Shawn Smith.

Calistoga Inn & Brew Pub has been suggested as one place to enjoy lunch. (Lunch is not covered in the price of your ticket.)

Tour #4 - Thursday, May 16th, 2024

Tour #6: Artisan Studios & Collaborative Gallery at Fulton Crossing and Korbel California Champagne Winery Tour & Tasting

in the Wine Country, Sonoma, CA

An Amador Coach will be our hands free and comfortable transportation as we travel to the wine country. Fulton Crossing's building dates to the 1800's. Throughout the years the building has taken on many roles, including a winery, fruit & vegetable packing plant, farmer's market and housing for circus animals.

Its current role is to house at least 16 artist studios, 8 workshops and two warehouses. Expect to see artists working in paint, fabric, glass, leather, ceramic, wood, flowers, jewelry and a large warehouse with mid-century furniture.

Plans are being made for a tour and champagne tasting. Korbel has an extensive delicatessen section. (Lunch is not covered in the price of your ticket.)
